

City of Baltimore
Recreation & Parks

Cylburn is for the Birds

Celebrate Urban Birds!

For more information or if you or your organization would like to take part, call Coordinator Gail Franz at 410 833-7135 or guineabird@aol.com

May 1, 2011

Time: 8:30 am to 4 pm

Cylburn Arboretum

4915 Greenspring Ave, Baltimore 21209

Join the Baltimore Bird Club, dedicated to bird conservation and observation, in an all-day celebration of urban birds. Events are planned for families and nature lovers of all ages to enjoy Cylburn and learn about its bird life.

- *Ribbon cutting at 10:00 am for eBird Trail Tracker
- *10:30 am symposium on birding in the digital age by Bill Hubick
- *Stop by all day at Big Sit circle to help identify urban birds
- *Visit the Nature Museum, a priceless local treasure
- *See live raptors & reptiles close-up
- *Join guided birding & wildflower walks
- *Attend interactive sessions on topics like backyard birding, birdhouses and feeders, birds & butterflies, planting for birds, hummingbirds
- *For the kids—bird walks, drawing birds, making birdhouses plus pre-event Birding Workshop April 30th
- *Booths sponsored by local wild bird stores, native plant vendors, bird artists & photographers
- Displays on BBC's Lights Out Baltimore & Youth programs
- *At noon, meet the Orioles' mascot, The Bird
(subject to change)