Program Booklet Fall 2020:  September 1-November 30, 2020

WELCOME BBC MEMBERS!

Please note the following changes to the Program Booklet, at least for the short term. The booklet has changed format because of the disruption in our lives caused by the pandemic. Trip leaders did not want to project too far into the future, so we will be issuing quarterly (3 months at a time) booklets. See schedule below.

Program Booklet Schedule for 2020-2021
Fall:  Sep 1-Nov 30
Winter: Dec 1-Feb 28
Spring:  Mar 1-May 30
Summer:  Jun 1-Aug 31

We have planned an extensive program of lectures and field trips, but public health guidelines are changing so rapidly that we do not know whether these events will be held. We know that Cylburn facilities will be closed for the rest of 2020, so Lectures will be held online. More information on this will follow in eNews. For field trips, contact the leader for the latest information regarding each trip.

Here are the MOS guidelines for field trips as of May 2020: “We want to urge everyone to continue to follow social distancing and carry masks and gloves for use if others are nearby. Trips will be limited to ten people or less and carpooling should only be by family members or those who live together. You must contact trip leaders, in advance, to let them know you are planning to go.”

Birders should carefully consider health risks before attending a field trip. Attendance is at your own risk.

Board and Committee Chairpersons have not yet been named and are therefore not included in the Fall Booklet. They will be available for the Winter Booklet.

THE MARYLAND ORNITHOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The Maryland Ornithological Society (MOS), organized in 1945, is an independent, non-profit educational bird-watchers organization with many local chapters throughout the state, including our Baltimore Bird Club. Many activities are sponsored at the state level, including teacher scholarships to summer nature camps, research grants, and the annual convention.

The two MOS periodical publications are:

- Maryland Yellowthroat, the club bimonthly newsletter.
- Maryland Birdlife, a semi-annual report of research and observations.

MOS Annual Conference 2021, date TBA

MOS SANCTUARIES

The MOS has properties set aside to preserve habitat in various locations throughout the state, including two with houses suitable for overnight accommodations.

See the MOS Web Page at http://www.MDBirds.org.

Baltimore Bird Club

The purpose of our club is to function as a local chapter of the Maryland Ornithological Society, Inc, and to further educational, scientific, and charitable pursuits relating to bird life in Maryland. The BBC sponsors field trips, bird counts, lectures, youth programs, scholarships, the Lights Out Baltimore Campaign, and other conservation efforts.

Chip Notes is our club newsletter, produced quarterly, providing information about birds, birders and club activities in the Baltimore area. Members are alerted via email when Chip Notes is available on-line. Paper copies are available upon request. Members are encouraged to send articles to our editor:

Joan Cwi
633 Stoney Spring Drive, Baltimore MD 21210
phone: 410-467-5352, email: jafisc@verizon.net

Baltimore Bird Club E-News

We also send, via e-mail, a monthly e-news bulletin with announcements, updates and reminders of major upcoming events. This service is only available to BBC members and cannot be accessed through the BBC website. Please let the membership secretary know if your email address changes so we can keep your e-bulletin coming.

Baltimore Bird Club on the Internet

Check us out at https://baltimorebirdclub.org for updates and changes to our activities schedule including field trips, bird lists, links to Maryland & DC Birding reports, to the state MOS organization’s web page, links to several other regional rare bird alerts and other organizations and activities, membership application form, and more.
Baltimore Bird Club on Facebook
BBC now has a Facebook page that members can access, whether or not they are members of Facebook. To contribute and/or receive routine updates, you need to join. Check us at: www.facebook.com/groups/382565775136349/members/.

Lights Out Baltimore
Lights Out Baltimore was formed by a group of concerned BBC birdwatchers who had seen firsthand how lights and windows can injure or kill birds. Our goal is to make Charm City safe for migratory birds by turning out decorative lighting in the city during Fall and Spring migration between the hours of 10 pm and 6 am. We also advocate for bird-safe building design that makes glass and windows visible to birds. Learn about LOB on their website and Facebook pages: http://www.lightsoutbaltimore.org https://www.facebook.com/savethebaltimorebirds

BBC Headquarters at Cylburn Arboretum
The BBC and MOS have had a long-standing relationship with Cylburn Arboretum. We continue this association in many ways.

Cylburn Birds and Nature Museum
BBC has an outstanding collection of mounted birds and other resources at Cylburn. The bird museum formerly housed in the Cylburn Carriage House is now closed for renovation. However, some mounted birds as well as paper records and natural history collections are stored in the third floor BBC work room in the Cylburn Mansion. Contact Peter Lev, plev@comcast.net with questions about the BBC collections.

Lectures at Cylburn
Initially lectures for the remainder of the year will be online only. Instructions for access will be provided in eNews. Lectures will be either live or taped, depending on the lecturer.

BALTIMORE BIRD CLUB FALL LECTURES SCHEDULE 2020

Monthly Lectures, generally held in the Cylburn Greenhouse Classroom, will be online only for the rest of this year. Instructions on how to access will appear in the next eNews bulletin.

September 8 (Tue) 7 pm - Joe Corcoran - "South Africa Birding Adventure 10 Years Post - Apartheid"
October 6 (Tue) 7 pm - Gail Mackiernan - “Mongolia: Birding in the Footsteps of Genghis Khan”
November 10 (Tue) 7 pm - Iain Campbell - “The Changes in the Birding Hobby”

FIELD TRIP GUIDELINES

- Check BBC program trip leader, schedule, newsletter, website and e-bulletin for trip details and changes.
- Contact trip leader in advance as participation is limited to 10 people in pandemic.
- During the pandemic, please practice social distancing.
- During the pandemic, the leader may require that participants wear masks.
- Report arrival and departure to leader.
• Do not go ahead of leader while walking or in caravan.
• Speak quietly on a walk or move to the back of the group when talking. “Bird listening” is as important as “Bird watching”.
• DO NOT play bird song or call recordings without leader approval.
• Leave dog at home.
• Children under 16 must be accompanied by a responsible adult.
• “Take nothing but pictures, leave only footprints.”

OCT 6 (Tue) 7:00 pm Tuesday Evening (Online Presentation). Continuing a series of monthly feature presentations and slide shows each month except December and January. Tonight: “Mongolia: Birding in the Footsteps of Genghis Khan,” presented by Gail Mackiernan. Gail will share her June 2018 birding trip to Mongolia, one of the most interesting countries to the naturalist. Immense grasslands, vast Gobi Desert, wild mountains and surprisingly varied wetlands (plus the lowest population density of any nation) host some of the planet’s most wanted birds. The group, ably supported by Mongolian outfitters, traveled to the dense taiga forest of the north, south through the steppe grasslands and into the Great Gobi Desert Protected Area near Mongolia’s southern border with China. Most travel was off-road, on faint tracks or even over trackless desert. It was wonderful. The group recorded about 175 species of birds, with many rarities like Pallas’s Sand-grouse and Henderson’s Ground-jay. They also scored with mammals, including Przewalski’s Horse (the only true wild horse).

OCT 7 (Wed) 8:00 am Fort McHenry. Continuing a series of surveys at the fort and wetland. Binoculars required. Telescope can be useful for distance viewing. Canceled in bad weather. Park outside the main entrance gate in lot on left, and meet at the gate. RSVP Leader Required. Trip limited to 10 participants. Be Prepared that Masks and Social Distancing May Be Required. Leader: Mary Chetelat, 410-665-0769, (alternate contact - Wendy Alexander, 443-204-3754).

OCT 11 (Sun) 9:00 am Marshy Point Nature Center. Easy half-day walk through varied habitats for feeder birds and other songbirds, raptors, and waterfowl. Half-mile trail leads to point overlooking Dundee Creek. Recommended for young birders and their parents. Boots advisable, telescopes useful. RSVP Leader Required. Trip limited to 10 participants. Be Prepared that Masks and Social Distancing May Be Required. Leaders: Brent and Mary Byers, baypuffin@hotmail.com or 410-686-7294.

Tonight: “The Changes in the Birding Hobby,” presented by Iain Campbell. The very nature of birding has been changing over the last ten years, and at Tropical Birding we have been monitoring the changes and challenges to our lifestyle. Let’s have a conversation about the movement from listing birding to birding photography, the move towards patch birding, and a fascinating movement to habitat birding. We can talk about flight shame and the balance between the desire to reduce carbon emissions and the need to protect world biodiversity through conservation projects funded through birding. Don’t be afraid to speak up.
